Kenya and Tanzania are major trading partners of India in Africa for over 500 years.

In recent years, due to the formation of regional Economic Communities such as East African Community and now the African Continental Free Trade Area, the importance of these two countries have increased for India. Both these countries have shown high GDP growth in recent years with Kenya growing at 5.7% and Tanzania at 6.8%. Both countries have been stable democracies for over 25 years. This workshop will provide an overview of the rising export and investment opportunities in these two as well as the six landlocked countries.

The Workshop will be conducted by Mr. Suhayl Abidi, Research Advisor, GOG-AMACentre of International Trade and Editor, Foreign Trade Update.
