- The new Indian Economy will create more number of business opportunities than full time employment opportunities.
- Every problem or pain point faced by us is also a business opportunity.
- Even those who are employed will find it more attractive to be self employed or become business owners before their retirement age. Ola alone provides business opportunity to 70,000 drivers.
- Rapid developments in information and communication technology create new business opportunities and make it easier to enter and exit business.
- For a long time officers and staff of defence forces have been retiring at their prime age and being rehabilitated in private sector. Ex defence personnel make a significant contribution to business.
- Amazon – world’s largest e-retailer has built their business model around creating and promoting new businesses. Alphabet (owners of Google) has created analytics tools to help budding businessmen.
- Major issue a new businessman faces is which business to enter. This program is designed to assist budding businessmen and women to know all the options available and make up their mind on which business to enter.
