'Management is doing things right; Leadership is doing the right things.
The Manager gains authority by position; the Leader, by influence'
– Peter Drucker

Leading and management must be complementary skills. An effective manager has to play a leadership role. Positive leadership helps organizations to achieve success and stability, and its importance is acknowledged in businesses worldwide. It is essential for leaders to be able to inspire, motivate and give clear guidance to their team in order to achieve their goals. They must empower the people that work with them to achieve better results. Today's unprecedented challenges require uncommon leadership. We have to revise traditional views on leadership and cultivate a new configuration of attitudes and abilities to keep pace with present day situations

Enhance your management skills and learn how to lead effectively. Discover your natural leadership potential and be equipped with essential tools to improve your team's performance.

- Content : The topics of deliberation are:
- Habits of effective managers
 - Characteristics of a capable Leader
