SUCCESS BODY LANGUAGE
(Specially for Students and Youth)

Walk the Talk - Project the right Image through the Art of Body Language, Communication Skills and First Impressions. Body language is a highly focused area of communication. Most of the me people are unaware of their gestures and the signals they send across. Projecting the right body language helps one create the right impression and the right climate for a serious conversation. Reading body language for beer understanding, acceptance and success in every interaction.

While appropriate appearance and body language form the visual part of any communication in a meeting, vocal communication skills are absolutely irreplaceable.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

This module will help the participants to be more aware of the subject and enhance his or her personal communication skills through elements of communication, barriers, communication styles & traits, constituents of verbal communication, etc. This module will also assist in improving listening skills.
